Wherever We Find Goodness

“Pope Francis reminds us that even those who reject God have been redeemed by the blood of Christ; Jesus’ sacrifice was for the entire human race. Thus, when atheists strive to do good, they are in some mysterious way setting foot on the same path we ourselves are meant to walk. And as the Catechism confirms, wherever we find goodness, we find those “elements of truth and grace” that signify the “secret presence of God”

(citing Vatican II’s Decree on the Missionary of Activity of the Church).”

Sunday Mass, 6:30p.m., Throughout the Year

Congratulations to our seniors and graduate students. We also honor those who are transitioning from here. We thank you for making the Newman Center your spiritual home away from home. Thank you for sharing your gifts and talents with us. All of us here are truly grateful that it was in God’s plan for our paths to cross. Please remember this place and the people who make it the Chapel of the Holy Spirit, and know you are always welcome here. May God bless you on your journeys and know that you will continue to be in our thoughts and prayers. Please keep us in your prayers!

And to our students going on summer break...

I can hardly believe that another year has come and gone. Thank you for a wonderful year! I hope you have a restful and wonderful break, and look forward to seeing all of you in the Fall. “Stay out of trouble, and don’t get arrested!”

Peace, Mike

PS God is smiling!

Hall Newman Center Student Minister Honored as an Alumni Association’s Outstanding Senior

Olivia Botting

Olivia Botting of North Syracuse, and Kayla Murphy of Amesbury, Massachusetts, have been selected as the Oswego Alumni Association’s 2018 Outstanding Senior Award recipients. They are to be recognized during the Commencement Eve Torchlight Dinner and Ceremony on May 11 in the Marano Campus Center.

Botting is the daughter of North Syracuse residents Howard (a 1989 undergraduate alumnus and 2007 master's graduate of SUNY Oswego) and Maureen Hanafin Botting (also a 1989 graduate). A geology major with a minor in Spanish, Botting graduates with a 3.48 GPA, having appeared on the Deans' List (GPA of 3.3 or higher) or President's List (GPA of 3.8 or higher) every semester throughout her college career. She has been very active in the peer ministry program at the Hall Newman Center at SUNY Oswego and has served in several roles on the executive board of the Newman Club.

She has been instrumental in organizing community service projects, including garbage pickups along the lake, meal delivery for the Salvation Army and Leave Green efforts that convert student donations into a large garage sale, and she has traveled for service trips with Habitat for Humanity to Florence, Alabama, and Omaha, Nebraska, and also to a farm in West Virginia. “I believe we are nothing without community, and within my leadership roles I strive to build a supporting and loving community with everyone I meet,” Botting said. “I enjoy volunteering and want to continue helping others after my time at Oswego.”

Botting also is a member of the Swing Dance Club, Geology Club, Omicron Delta Kappa Leadership Honor Society and Sigma Delta Pi Honor Society, and she has served as a First Year Peer Advisor for the department of atmospheric and geological sciences.

In his letter of recommendation, director of campus ministry Michael Huynh said, “Olivia is a wonderful addition to our program, and we are fortunate that she has shared her many gifts with us. Her positive spirit is contagious and her positive regard to all she encounters makes all of her interactions with students as well as peers authentic and affirmative.”

FAITH DIRECT™

As we enter into this time of transition... graduations, summer vacation, changes in schedules, a time of rest and renewal for some, a hectic time for others, we recognize the gift this new season offers - and in turn the opportunities that every new transition grants to us. Spring and summer often offer us the time to embrace our beautiful surroundings in a new way. So as we embrace this new season I would like to take the opportunity to ask you to remember the ministry here at the Hall Newman Center. Please recognize that as you travel to visit family and friends and take time to rejuvenate during vacation that the ministry here carries on -- and as always, we cannot do it without your support. Please consider using Faith Direct to continue to support our ministry even when you cannot be physically present here. Faith Direct is an online tool in which you can automate your financial gifts to the Hall Newman Center. Several of our community members are enrolled and report positive feedback as to the security, and convenience of this program. Enrollment can be accomplished online at faithdirect.net, using code NY667 or by mail. An FAQ as well as enrollment forms are available.

Please call our office at 315.312.7222 or email at newctr@oswego.edu for additional information.

Thank you, Mike.

People Against Poverty Committee 2018 Leave Green Wrap-up

The Poverty committee wishes to thank the wonderful support and assistance we received from our community. Many members helped with the collecting and sorting of the tons of food, clothing and other articles donated by both college students and community members. The proceeds of this sale will go towards supporting local food pantries, those in need, and the good deeds of the Poverty committee which serves our community year-round..

Prayer for the Summer

Jesus, thank you for Summer. Thank you for light and warmth. Thank you for the sun. Thank you for the gifts of nature and for the annual cycles and seasons. Today, give us that grace again, to see you as the Creator, the One who lifts us up to be with you forever, even now. Amen.
